A deposit is required to confirm a booking with us and there is always a minimum non-refundable amount as per the Cancellations Terms of The Holiday. We make all best endeavours to issue a written quote with accurate prices but if we have made an error and underquoted the price, or the price has subsequently increased since the time of your written quote when we receipt your payment, then you have the right to cancel your booking with no cancellation charge given you provide the request to cancel within 48 hours of our price amendment, with the exclusion of prices quoted deemed as indicative or fluctuating such as airfare prices or cruise fare prices, or Late Bookings.

Other Monies Due

The payment of a deposit will reserve your booking (subject to availability) until the progress monies and/or final monies due date. If progress monies and/or final monies are outstanding and not received by encounter within 7 days of becoming due, we have the right to deem your booking as cancelled and the cancellation policy under the clause 'cancellation charges' will apply.

If your booking includes Third Party arrangements and monies due for these arrangements are not paid by the due date, we have the right to cancel these Third Party arrangements, with no refund of any monies already paid for these arrangements or as advised by the terms of the Third Party arrangements.

The Booking Close Date promoted for The Holiday is not a confirmation of availability and you must wait to receive confirmation of availability from us. It is at our discretion to accept bookings after the Booking Close Date.

Cancellation

Bookings are confirmed with deposit payments, and cancellation penalties will apply if you cancel your holiday after making a payment to secure a booking. Cancellation penalties vary holiday to holiday. Refer to separate 'Cancellation Terms for each holiday, available on our website and provided with quotes, or on request.

When cancellation advice has been received the next working day is considered the effective date of the cancellation. Public Holidays apply as per New South Wales, Australia Public Holidays. A cancellation must be made in writing to Encounter Travel. Cancellation penalties are on a per person basis. Once we receive your notice, cancellation will take effect subject to the below Cancellation Charges. When the airfare has already been ticketed, the penalties imposed by the airline and our airfare cancellation charges also apply, and these may be as high as 100% non-refundable.

Identification

Government issued photo identification is required for joining our holidays. This must be your passport document unless the destination (country) of your holiday is the same as your country of residence and in this case a government issued other document can be provided such as a drivers license or government identification card, given the identification includes your portrait photo.

Transferred Booking

If you have transferred directly from another holiday to this Holiday, the cancellation penalty applied will be the greater of the cancellation penalties between; the cancellation penalty that would have applied to the original holiday you booked, and the penalty that applies to this Holiday for your cancellation.

Use of Future Travel Credit

If you are applying a Future Travel Credit (otherwise referred to as a Future Tour Credit or Credit Note) to this Holiday and subsequently cancel this Holiday, the terms of the original Future Travel Credit will be reinstated, less the Holiday cancellation penalty that applies to this Holiday and our amendment fee.

In the event of your withdrawal from The Holiday after commencement for reasons of illness, you must obtain a medical certificate in support of any insurance claim. We make no representation or guarantees concerning reimbursements of funds paid by you under any insurance claim. The tour price is quoted as a package. No partial refunds or credit will be given for services not used and including but not limited to missed meals or sightseeing. Any amount forfeited, which has not then been paid to Encounter by you may be recovered from you by encounter as a debt due and payable.

Refer to our 'Transfers' terms for details about the option to transfer instead of cancelling a booking. In addition to the terms above, the transferred funds are non-refundable if you have transferred your booking to this holiday from a previous trip under our 'transfer' option.

Prices are quoted at today's rate and are subject to any changes in tour costs, airfares, tariffs and conditions imposed by airlines, wholesalers or other Third Parties. All costs are subject to currency fluctuations and/or price increases until paid in full. Furthermore, a fuel surcharge may be imposed on the cost of The Holiday as a result of significant increases in world fuel prices or other costs that form part of The Holiday costs that are outside of our control. As such, we have the right to pass on this surcharge to you at any time before departure whether your monies are paid in full or not.

If applicable, any reduced price for a single supplement that is usually referred to as a 'reduced single supplement' will only be available until the three months prior to travel or the final monies due date (whichever comes first) and any saving after this date for the single supplement is at our discretion.

Airport and Security Taxes for an airfare can vary from the time they are first quoted. They are confirmed at the time that final monies for the airfare are due. There may also be additional taxes at some international and/or domestic airports upon departure which must be paid by you at the point of departure.

We can transact payments on Visa, Mastercard or American Express. The use of your credit card or debit card using these merchant services incurs transaction fees. These fees are advised on your quote.

Direct deposits using electronic funds transfers or payment over the counter at our bank do not incur transaction fees, unless it's a cash payment over the counter to our bank account in excess of $5000 which incurs a bank fee of 0.25% of the total amount deposited imposed by the bank. This charge will be added to The Holiday price.

Payment from an overseas bank account (outside of Australia) into our bank account incurs bank transaction fees and you must pay this transaction fee and where the costs are charged to us, we add this charge to your account.

If opting to, or required to use a credit or debit card for Third Party providers such as hotels or on cruise ships for expenses or as a security deposit, it's your responsibility to enquire about the terms of use of such cards and we take no responsibility for Third Party terms. As a general guide, it's regular practice for such Third Parties to take a pre authorisation of funds from your card, and if a debit card this will be taken as cash from your card. A pre authorisation means that the amount held, where not used for purchases with the Third Party, will not be released until your cruise, or hotel stay terminates, and delays on release of the funds may be incurred, and for debit cards it may take longer than a credit card and up to 30 days depending on your bank's policy.

Instant Purchase Payment Terms

Bookings deemed 'Instant Purchase' require payment on the same day at least 90 minutes before the close of business, and for some purchases it may be sooner.

Payment by Electronic Fund Transfer cannot be guaranteed to be received on the same day that the funds are transferred. Therefore all Instant Purchase bookings require payment by a credit or debit card, transacted over the phone with us during business hours, or in some circumstances, an online payment link may be available for the purchase.

Should you wish to direct deposit by electronic funds transfer and chance that the funds will reflect in our account on the same day, it may also require that you send us a payment receipt from your bank account. Also if the funds don't clear, and you still wish to proceed with the Instant Purchase, a credit or debit card would be required. Then, the amount paid by electronic funds transfer would be retained towards your travel account due, or otherwise may be refunded with an administration charge of $25 per transaction.

Where the issue directly relates to the delivery of your service or product from a Third Party, such as your hotel, cruise ship, train or other transport provider in many instances it may be more practical to raise the issue directly with the Third Party provider. If you do not feel it's been resolved by liaising directly with the Third Party provider, we suggest that you refer the matter to your group leader and where possible they will offer assistance. Of course, the examples of these situations can be vast and varied and for this reason each situation is assessed on its own merit.
